100 words about our school from the school

As a school community, we aspire to develop life-long learners who have confidence to shine in the world around them and to grow into independent individuals. We value each child as we demonstrate how to care for one another, respect their world and each other and share their time, resources and learning. Our curriculum leads children to discover, explore and create the knowledge, skills and understanding required in the range of subjects the National Curriculum offers. We work together to ensure all children thrive in their learning, move towards their hopes and dreams and shine as lights in the world.
